Warnings

Acts 20:27-31

27 For I have not shunned to declare unto you all the counsel of God.
28 Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flock, over the which the Holy Ghost hath made you overseers,

to feed the church
of God, which he hath purchased
with his own
blood.
29 For I know this,
that after my departing shall grievous wolves
enter in among

you, not sparing
the flock.
30 Also of your own selves
shall men arise,
speaking
perverse things,
to draw away
disciples after them.
31 Therefore

watch, and
remember,
that by the space
of three years
I ceased not to warn every one
night and day
with tears.

Tearful Night & Day Warnings

Notice key words and phrases such as, “watch, and remember” and “I ceased not to warn every one night and day with tears”. These tear-stained warnings are that deception is waiting to destroy fellowships of Believers.

The writer says he has not failed to share this godly admonition to “the church of God”, which consists of groups as well as individuals who seek to faithfully follow Christ.

Tearful warnings went out day and night in hopes of sparing the people of God during that time. Those urgings still apply today for there are currently many, many "grievous wolves" who speak "perverse things" to gain new followers of those whom Christ has "purchased with his own blood."
